

The National Youth Brass Band of Great Britain

Equality, Diversity and Inclusion Policy (NYBBGB-P004)

Dated

May 2022

1. Equal opportunities statement

- 1.1. The National Youth Brass Band of Great Britain (the “Band”) is committed to promoting equal opportunities, equality and diversity in employment. You and any job applicants will receive equal treatment regardless of age, disability, gender reassignment, marital or civil partner status, pregnancy or maternity, race, colour, nationality, ethnic or national origin, religion or belief, sex or sexual orientation (Protected Characteristics).
- 1.2. Our aim is to ensure fair treatment and opportunity for all.

2. About this policy

- 2.1. This policy sets out our approach to equal opportunities, equality and diversity and the avoidance of discrimination at work. It applies to all aspects of employment with us, including recruitment, pay and conditions, training, appraisals, promotion, conduct at work, disciplinary and grievance procedures, and termination of employment.
- 2.2. The Chief Executive Officer is responsible for this policy and any necessary training on equal opportunities.
- 2.3. This policy applies to all employees, officers, consultants, contractors, volunteers, interns, casual workers and agency workers.
- 2.4. This policy does not form part of any employee's contract of employment and we may amend it at any time.

3. Aims and Objectives

- 3.1. We will aim to promote equality and diversity in everything we do and we will treat people with fairness and respect.
- 3.2. We will aim to create an environment free of bullying, harassment, victimisation and unlawful discrimination, promoting dignity and respect for all where individual differences are recognised, valued and celebrated.
- 3.3. We will aim to consider the (literal and perceived) accessibility of rehearsals, meetings, concerts and events.
- 3.4. We will aim to take into consideration barriers to participation to ensure that specific groups in the community are not excluded.
- 3.5. We will aim to consider how we write role descriptions, conduct application processes, interviews, shortlisting & selection processes, selection panels, and how these are comprised.
- 3.6. We will aim to consider how and where we audition for members. Whilst appointments will always be based on merit and alignment to the band's values we will aim for an equal balance between male and female members and continually strive to build membership of minority ethnic groups.
- 3.7. We will aim to ensure that the staff team and trustee board fairly reflects (in terms of, for example, age, gender and race) the broader community of the United Kingdom.
- 3.8. Practices, policies and procedures will be reviewed and updated regularly to consider and take action relating to any issues and to take account of changes in the law.

- 3.9. We will aim to provide our published materials in accessible formats where possible.

4. Discrimination

- 4.1. You must not unlawfully discriminate against or harass other people including current and former employees, job applicants, clients, customers, suppliers and visitors. This applies in the workplace, outside the workplace (when dealing with customers, suppliers or other work-related contacts and on work-related trips or events including social events).
- 4.2. The following forms of discrimination are prohibited under this policy and are unlawful:
- 4.2.1. Direct discrimination: treating someone less favourably because of a Protected Characteristic. For example, rejecting a job applicant because of their religious views or because they might be gay.
- 4.2.2. Indirect discrimination: a provision, criterion or practice that applies to everyone but adversely affects people with a particular Protected Characteristic more than others, and is not justified. For example, requiring a job to be done full-time rather than part-time would adversely affect women because they generally have greater childcare commitments than men. Such a requirement would be discriminatory unless it can be justified.
- 4.2.3. Harassment: this includes sexual harassment and other unwanted conduct related to a Protected Characteristic, which has the purpose or effect of violating someone's dignity or creating an intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive environment for them. Harassment is dealt with further in our Anti-harassment and Bullying Policy.

4.2.4. Victimization: retaliation against someone who has complained or has supported someone else's complaint about discrimination or harassment.

4.2.5. Disability discrimination: this includes direct and indirect discrimination, any unjustified less favourable treatment because of the effects of a disability, and failure to make reasonable adjustments to alleviate disadvantages caused by a disability.

5. Recruitment and selection

- 5.1. Recruitment, promotion and other selection exercises such as redundancy selection will be conducted on the basis of merit, against objective criteria that avoid discrimination. Shortlisting should be done by more than one person if possible.
- 5.2. Vacancies should generally be advertised to a diverse section of the labour market. Advertisements should avoid stereotyping or using wording that may discourage particular groups from applying.
- 5.3. Job applicants should not be asked questions which might suggest an intention to discriminate on grounds of a Protected Characteristic. For example, applicants should not be asked whether they are pregnant or planning to have children.
- 5.4. Job applicants should not be asked about health or disability before a job offer is made, except in the very limited circumstances allowed by law: for example, to check that the applicant could perform an intrinsic part of the job (taking account of any reasonable adjustments), or to see if any adjustments might be needed at interview because of a disability. Where necessary, job offers can be made conditional on a satisfactory medical check. Health or disability questions may be included in equal opportunities monitoring forms, which must not be used for selection or decision-making purposes.

6. Disabilities

- 6.1. If you are disabled or become disabled, we encourage you to tell us about your condition so that we can consider what reasonable adjustments or support may be appropriate.

7. Part-time and fixed-term work

- 7.1. Part-time and fixed-term employees should be treated the same as comparable full-time or permanent employees and enjoy no less favourable terms and conditions (on a pro-rata basis where appropriate), unless different treatment is justified.

8. Breaches of this policy

- 8.1. We take a strict approach to breaches of this policy, which will be dealt with in accordance with our Disciplinary Procedure. Serious cases of deliberate discrimination may amount to gross misconduct resulting in dismissal.

- 8.2. If you believe that you have suffered discrimination you can raise the matter through our Grievance Procedure. Complaints will be treated in confidence and investigated as appropriate.
- 8.3. You must not be victimised or retaliated against for complaining about discrimination. However, making a false allegation deliberately and in bad faith will be treated as misconduct and dealt with under our Disciplinary Procedure.
